RANGJUNG YESHE INSTITUTE

Depending on nationality RYI has different rates for:

- International

- SAARC

If you are a student from a SAARC country, the SAARC tuition rates apply to you.

- Nepali

If you are a local Nepali student, you qualify for the Nepali tuition rate.

If you are not a Nepali or SAARC student, International tuition rates apply to you.

MA Program:

MA - Standard Rate: Everyone, who doesn't qualify for the one of the two rates below.

MA - Graduate Rate: Bachelor of Arts graduates from CBS.

MA - Continuing Education Rate: Enrolled for two consecutive semesters, on-campus at RYI with a minimum of 9 credits per semester directly, preceding the start of the MA program. Please contact the office for details.

Summer Program:

Standard Rate: Everyone who doesn't qualify for the rate below.

Summer Continuing Education Rate: Enrolled for two consecutive semesters, on-campus at RYI with a minimum of 9 credits per semester, directly preceding the start of the Summer program. Please contact the office for details.

Additional Financial Policies

- Summer Program tuition is due in full two weeks after acceptance into the program.
- Fall and Spring semester tuition is due in full by Friday before the start of the semester.
- Students from Nepal and any SAARC country must pay their tuition fees in Nepali Rupees. All other students must pay their tuition fees in US Dollars. Payments can be made in cash, traveler's checks, and by credit card (additional 3.5% charge added) at the Administration Office, or via bank transfer.
- The Summer Program price includes tuition, lunch at the Institute's restaurant and tours.
- * Colloquial Tibetan and Nepali Summer Intensives with home-stay option include accommodation and all meals. Students who choose to opt out of the homestay program pay a reduced course fee. These students must also arrange for breakfast and dinner on their own.
- The Tuition fee for the Buddhist Studies Intensive also includes all expenses for the two-week retreat at the end of the course.
- The Translator Training Program price includes: registration fees, tuition, visa fee, lunch at the RYI restaurant when school is in session, two months with a Tibetan Homestay family as well as all course materials.

CBS/RYI wishes to emphasize that, while every effort is made to keep this information up to date, prices are subject to adjustment in light of changes in regulations or policy.
